The Global Sourcing Executive Workshop will help you navigate the complex landscape of international business.

Companies and organizations need skilled operations management and supply chain management professionals to keep their businesses favorably positioned in today's intensely competitive global marketplace.

This workshop provides a comprehensive study of the critical tasks and challenges associated with sourcing and procurement internationally.

The Executive workshop is specifically designed to discuss key issues and best practices in Global Sourcing. By attending this workshop, you will have the opportunity to step back and evaluate your current policies and practices. Attendees will have the opportunity to share experiences with other supply chain professionals.

During this 4 hour workshop, we will discuss:

- Why Globalization
- Evaluating Countries
- Selecting Suppliers
- Cultural Relationships
- Logistics Requirements
- Key Issues and Best Practices

Starting Saturday, March 24, the APICS Houston Chapter will conduct a 3 day workshop on Global Sourcing. Over the 3 days we will extensively discuss the key aspects of Global Sourcing.

Facilitated by: Chuck Connelly CFPIM, CSCP, CPA

Chuck is a Management Consultant with extensive experience in supply chain management and global sourcing. His experience extends across oil and gas, retail, fashion, and high technology industries.

Chuck the APICS Houston Chapter VP of Professional Development.
